BURRITOS

★ OUR HISTORY ★

Did you know Bombers Burrito Bar was founded on $15,000 won at the Turning Stone Casino at a poker game? No joke! It was then that Bombers' founder, Matt Baumgartner (with the help of his friend Lynn Beaumont), quit his job at General Electric and pursued his dream of opening up the best burrito joint in New York!

Bombers Burrito Bar opened up as a small lil' takeout restaurant in October 1997. Serving giant burritos and tacos for a wee little price, Bombers quickly became a hot spot for students, poor rock bands, cheap state workers and pretty much anyone with a tattoo or multiple facial piercings .

Since then, Bombers Burrito Bar has opened up a kick-ass tequila and beer bar which has over 50 different kinds of beer, enough tequila to get your entire MySpace/Facebook/Twitter network drunk, and undeniably the best Jukebox ON EARTH!!!

Bombers Burrito Bar is still, and will always be, committed to serving you the finest, largest, most delicious burritos this side of Utica.

You could be eating or drinking anywhere... but you're here at Bombers. We appreciate that
